LITIGATION & DISPUTES

High quality for high stakes.

Our professionals have been involved with the most complex financial and economic issues in settings where the outcome can shape a company's future. AMLaw 100, boutique law firms, Fortune 1000s, and middle market clients know the value of Ankura's people and turn to us when the stakes are high. Our qualified experts collaborate with clients to develop appropriate litigation strategies over a broad spectrum of disputes.

Our services include early case assessment, discovery assistance, financial records analysis, damages assessment, critique of opposing expert analyses, witness preparation, and expert witness testimony. Our professionals in this practice are qualified experts and collaborate across the entire firm to bring the functional and industry expertise of all Ankura professionals to bear on matters.
