Rideshare Drivers Deserve Better Insurance

Chances are your insurance doesn't fully protect you.
Discover a better insurance option for rideshare drivers.

Here's your current reality

You might not be covered

When you turn on your driver app, chances are your personal auto insurance doesn't protect you while rideshare driving. And, even though some coverage might be provided by rideshare companies, it may not be enough to protect you and your vehicle.

- 1. Create your account
All you need is your driver's license, your vehicle's identification number (VIN), and your debit or credit card.
- 2. Select your coverage
Each time you drive, select the micro policy that works for you based on the amount of coverage you want and the rate you choose to pay.
- 3. Stay covered as long as you drive
Your policy will automatically expire at 4 hours unless you choose to end it early or renew it for longer.

Why pay more?

Your coverage. Your choice.
