Floret

Floret is an all-day neighborhood restaurant and bar helmed by award-winning chef Joe Ogradnek of Battersby. Offering a seasonal menu inspired by Mediterranean, East Asian, North African, Australian and Californian flavors, the inventive fare exalts individual ingredients as the focus of each dish and the local purveyors it came from. Floret's cocktail program is inspired by the kitchen's use of fresh fruits, vegetables and herbs.

Located on Bowery in the Lower East Side of Manhattan, it's the ground floor restaurant at Sister City. With an outdoor, warm-weather garden patio, Floret is open every day, including weekend brunch.

Opening Summer, 2019.
