

UNITED FOR SCHIZOPHRENIA

No one struggles alone, and no one succeeds alone.

Managing care for people with schizophrenia can be challenging. Lack of resources and poor continuity of care may add to the obstacles that stand in the way of progress.<sup>1,2</sup>

It will take all of us, working together as part of the network of care for people with schizophrenia, to help make an impact. We can help make a real difference by sharing our stories and being United for Schizophrenia.
