While I'm disappointed to have not qualified for the third debate, I remain committed to the campaign for one simple reason: someone has to be consistently telling the truth and in doing so, telling a better story about the future we can share together.
What has surprised me most about the primary process is the absence of a single candidate who is consistently telling the truth, and the lack of character and integrity of candidates who are not. I'm going to m...

Marc Delaney Depends on what the definition of "is" is. 20h · Edited

Andrew Grossen First of all, why are you doing sharing a Washington Examiner article? 2nd, you are in no position to lecture the Senator. 31.66% of her contributions are from small donors, you? 2.61%. Honestly, sick of your egotistical self-funded campaign fighting for scraps of relevance to the point you share right wing tabloid. 20h
