Why wait for opportunity to knock? Leave the door open!

Unext helps students get first-hand exposure in their major of interest to increase their confidence in a career path. We connect students to job shadows, internships, jobs and more opportunities.

FOR STUDENTS

Understanding a field of work before committing is crucial. Too many students are uninformed about different career paths. Don't fall behind; Build your connections while you're in school to land your ideal job before you graduate!

"Growing up all I wanted to be was a 3rd grade teacher. Once I discovered business and built connections, I realized what I really wanted to do. Having a site like Unext is so rewarding for people because it opens the door for opportunity and understanding that there are so many other things out there."
