Established in 1863, Martini & Rossi is an alcoholic beverage company based in Turin, Italy known primarily for producing its eponymous line of vermouth and lending its name to the world-famous martini cocktail. Now owned by Bacardi, the brand has since ventured into other categories beyond its vermouth roots including sparkling wine and ready-to-drink cocktails.

Among the latter is the Martini & Rossi Frose, a frozen cocktail consisting of rose wine and natural fruit flavors conveniently packaged for personal enjoyment. Made from premium Italian rose, each batch starts with the wine being blended with real strawberry, lemon, grapefruit, and peach, infusing it with their vibrant flavors. After this, the resulting concoction is sweetened with cane sugar before being finally packaged in 100% recyclable pouches.

Perfect for pool parties, a day at the beach, or just chilling in your backyard, this Martini & Rossi Frose 6-Pack 10oz is definitely a worthwhile pick up of you're a fan of rose wine, cocktails, or frozen treats. So don't think twice about ordering a pack or two today and indulge yourself in the refreshing fruit flavors that only this ready-to-drink cocktail can deliver.
