In alchemical texts bees are alleged to represent "the alliance of the earthy and the airy" and the cells of their hive are an example of sacred geometry.

Tucked away in and around the cells of their hive are an A for Alkemi, the Moon, the Sun (Gold), a Star, a Crown, the elements Air and Earth, a musical note and a cross symbolizing the four cardinal directions.

The Bee design is laser etched on the soundboard and then hand tinted for contrast.

The bright soprano sound from this pineapple shape is a bit louder and more mellow than the standard profile.
