Travel Every Day™

When we travel, we step out of our comfort zone, embrace new experiences, and make the most of every moment. When we travel, we are active, curious, and inspired.

We believe in the power of this mindset and aim to make travel a part of our everyday lifestyle. It's at the core of what we do and we're obsessed with finding better ways to travel.

Wherever your day takes you – the office, the gym, a new city – travel every day.

Our Story

Aer started in 2014 as a crowdfunding project that combined a gym bag and an office bag into one simplified design. Since then, we've grown our collection with award-winning products to help you travel
