C2C Lending Initial Launch

Huobi 7 days ago · Updated

Huobi is pleased to announce the initial launch of Huobi C2C Lending Service on 21st May 2020 (GMT+8). During the initial launch period, users can enjoy 50% off Platform Service Fee (original platform fee rate is 18%, effective initial launch rate being 9%). You may log on to Huobi website (www.huobi.me), or download the latest version of Huobi APP to experience it. For details, please see the following information:

C2C Lending Service:

Via C2C Lending Service, Huobi Global provides a matching platform for C2C token lenders and borrowers. C2C Lending Service comprises of the following sub-modules:

1. C2C Loan: C2C Loan allows users who have idle token balances on Huobi Global to submit order requests to lend their tokens out at a pre-defined daily interest rate. Users who have token borrowing needs can select which orders to accept and pay lenders the pre-agreed token interest. 【see C2C Loan】

App users can access “C2C Lending” module via the “Margin” drop-down menu.
