PRODUCT DETAILS

Equal parts old school and new, our trainers have MWL Cloudlift insoles for a supercushy, ultra-supportive fit that feels like walking on a...well, you know. They're also as eco-friendly as we can make them. The cotton lining and rubber outsoles? Recycled. Oh, and the leather is sustainable too. Bonus: This colorblock pair syncs up perfectly with our cozy MWL (Make Weekends Longer) collection.

- When you select your size, "H" equals a half size.
- Please note: These sneakers fit slightly narrow, so we recommend going up a half size if you have a wider foot.
- Suede, nubuck upper.
- Lining is 65% recycled cotton/35% conventional cotton.
- Outsole is 40% man-made/35% recycled rubber/20% natural rubber/5% rice husks (aka the speckles).
- Import.
- Madewell.com only.

Cute but too small

November 4, 2020

I ordered a size up to an 11. I'm usually a solid ten regular width. Sadly I'll be returning because the 11 feels like a 9.5 to me. Super cute style, but way too small for me!
