Details

Beyond's Overnight Control Pad is the perfect option for women searching for the solution for difficult to manage, urinary incontinence. The incontinence pad is 13.25 inches long and 4.25 inches wide. Although it is the largest in the Beyond Bladder Control Pad collection, the Overnight pad remains slim, eliminating bulk and bulging thanks to the standing leak guard and maximum wicking technology. This bladder pad is built with a superior level of absorbency, without sacrificing comfort or design. Initially designed for overnight use, this pad is also a great fit for women who experience more serious daytime incontinence. This pad for women contains high quality leak guards that ensure comfort and usability, creating the perfect option for women in need of a discreet solution to urinary incontinence. Beyond Overnight is designed for women experiencing stress and heavy urge incontinence with up to a large gush of fluid loss, but less than a full bladder loss.

Why buy Beyond Overnight Bladder Control Pad?

- Beyond Overnight is one of the best bladder control pads on the market
- This highly recommended overnight bladder pad 13.25 inches long
- Overnight Bladder Control Pad has superior wicking technology for maximum absorbency
- Beyond Overnight does not contain dye
- This bladder pad comes in 3 perfect sizes

Overnight Bladder Control Pad is a great replacement for incontinence products like Poise Pads, Prevail Pads and Tena Intimate Overnight (SCA-54282).
