Love these! They look great but some of the bowls have these cracks in them. They do not go all the way through but you can tell cracked. Wayfair was awesome and replaced but some of the new ones are also this way. You can tell the crack shouldn't be there! I love the look and will use until crack goes through!!

I ordered two sets of these dishes hoping they would look as good in person as they do online. And they do! These dishes have a great "feel" to them and the gray/white color is perfect with my new white cabinets. And very importantly, the 10 1/2" dinner plate fits in my cabinet. I previously had a 12" dinner plate and the cabinet door did not fully shut. Highly recommend these dishes.

They are a little rough textured on the outside of the cup but I was willing to go with that however, the second time I used them, a large plate has a large chip in it. It's so sharp I can't use it. I would like a refund please. They are junk!!
