

Introducing the beta for

Steam Broadcasting

Watch friends play, with the click of a button.

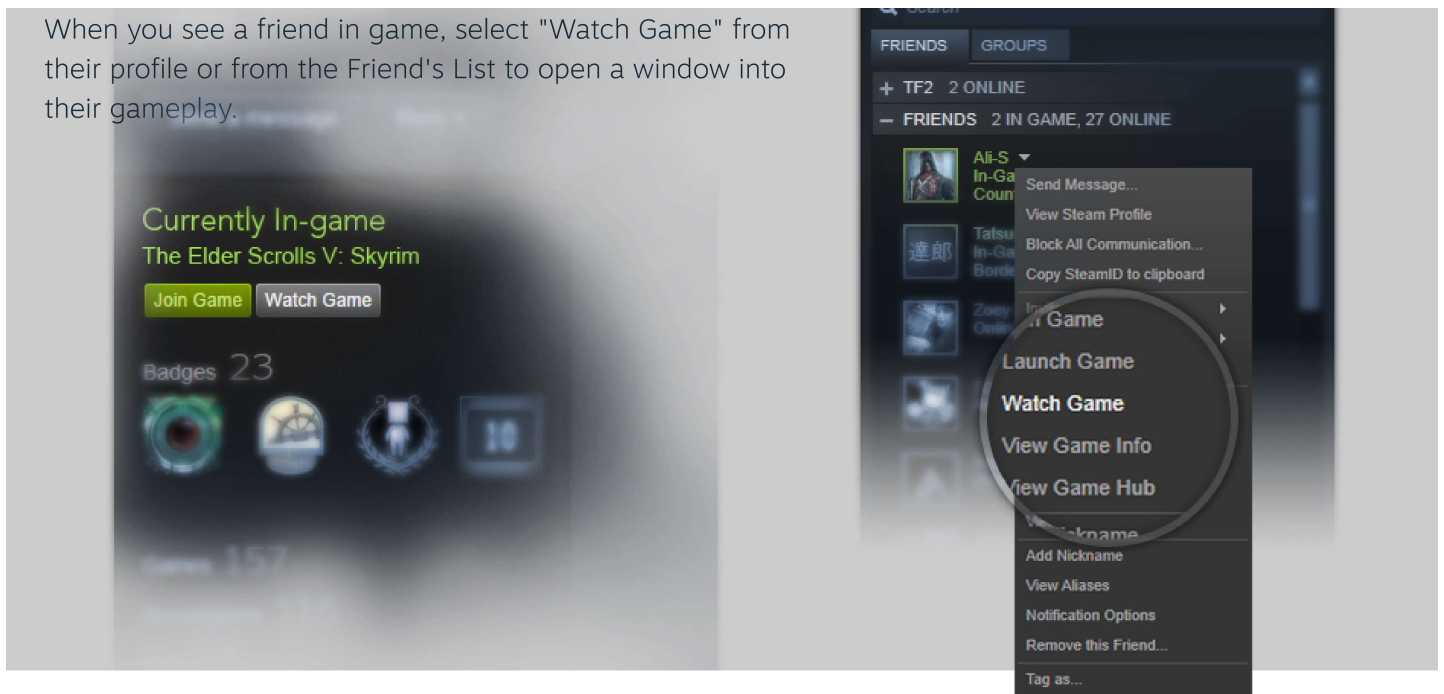

Want to show off? Invite a friend to watch your game. Friend stuck on a level? Watch and give them live pointers.

Watch your friends play.

How?

When you see a friend in game, select "Watch Game" from their profile or from the Friend's List to open a window into their gameplay.

Try it now

Sign in to see friends who are in-game and watch them play!

Who can watch my games?

You decide. The first time a friend asks to watch your game you'll be presented with the broadcast privacy settings...

If you select "Anyone can watch my games" then your broadcast will be visible on that game hub.

How do I start & stop my broadcast?

When you're playing a game and someone starts watching, you automatically start broadcasting. When you end the game your broadcast ends.
