Brick Phones to Smartphones: PanaVise Gets a Grip

Mobile phones have changed greatly over the last 20 years. From bulky brick phones to super-thin smartphones, mobile devices have evolved into multifunctional accessories used by billions of people. Through all this change, one thing has remained the same: the need to conveniently and securely mount a mobile phone within a vehicle. Since 1990, PanaVise PortaGrip Phone Holders have been the industry leader for in-vehicle mounting solutions. PanaVise welcomes the latest evolution of the PortaGrip that once again sets the standard for phone mounts. Designed for today's smartphones with large touchscreens, thin bezels and various button and charging port configurations, the new PanaVise PortaGrip is the latest product in the 20+ years history of PanaVise phone holders under the PortaGrip name.

Key Product Features:

- Fully adjustable to accommodate a wide range of smartphones (2.25" to 3.75" in width)
- Rubberized grippers gently secure the phone (unlike designs with compression foam that squeeze the phone)
- Rubberized grippers adjust vertically for various button configurations on sides of phone
- Ratcheted feet allow access for different charging port sizes and locations
- PanaVise Tilt, Turn & Rotate = fully adjustable

Paired with PanaVise's industry leading suction cup technology, the new PortaGrip provides a secure in-vehicle mounting solution for your phone. Various combinations are available including vehicle-specific InDash mounts and fixed-mounted pedestals and flex shafts.

The new PortaGrip is the core product in the PanaVise Mobile Solutions line consisting of mounts and accessories designed for today's smartphone user. Dashmats, NoSkid weighted mounts and USB power adapters round out the accessories options.
