Campuses

Palmetto College consists of online USC programs plus two-year USC campuses across the state. You can earn your first two years of college credit at one of our local Palmetto College campuses, then transfer to a four-year campus or complete your bachelor's degree online!

Online »

USC offers classes, certificates, bachelor's degrees and graduate degrees online. The goal of our online programs is to make education accessible to every student, regardless of their proximity to one of the campuses.

USC Lancaster »

USC Lancaster is committed to making higher education accessible, affordable, and convenient through a broad commitment to equity, an extensive scholarship and financial aid program, and a variety of weekday and evening courses. In August 2018, USC Lancaster opened an extension location in Indian Land, South Carolina where courses for all types of students are offered in the evening.

USC Salkehatchie »

USC Salkehatchie consists of two campuses in Allendale and Walteboro, each with an equal number of students. USC Salkehatchie has a diverse faculty, many of whom hold the highest degrees in their fields, and all of whom are devoted to improving students academically.

USC Sumter »

USC Sumter offers affordable tuition, athletics, student clubs and a memorable college experience. Our faculty provides a solid academic foundation for our students who prove their success at the next level every year.

USC Union »

USC Union serves students in the upstate area through the Union and Laurens campuses. Highly qualified faculty provide exceptional classroom and extracurricular experiences and encourage students to become engaged in their communities.

USC Palmetto College Columbia »

With sites in Lexington and Fort Jackson, USC Palmetto College Columbia provides affordable, flexible and accessible classes towards a Bachelor's Degree.
