Overview Wedding Insurance Coverage FAQ

What is Wedding Insurance Coverage?

Wedding insurance is special event insurance that provides coverage for wedding mishaps such as venues closing, vendor no-shows, extreme weather, damaged gifts, sickness or injury and more. Optional liability and liquor liability coverage are also available to protect your interests from unfortunate mishaps such as a slips and falls or damage to property at the event. Make sure your wedding insurance has your big day protected for those "just in case" moments. Explore wedding insurance coverage from Travelers.

What Does Wedding Insurance Cover?

Cancellation or Postponement Coverage

Travelers Wedding Insurance cancellation coverage helps protect you from financial loss if your big day needs to be postponed or canceled due to family illness, extreme weather, or some other unexpected reason.

Wedding Video/Photo Coverage

Wedding insurance includes coverage for photos and videos. That means, if your photographer or videographer doesn't show up for the event, or does not deliver photos and videos when promised, you're covered.

Protection for Wedding Gifts

Travelers Wedding Insurance can provide coverage for wedding gifts (excluding cash and gift cards).

Special Attire and Jewelry Coverage

Travelers Wedding Insurance includes coverage for lost or damaged dresses or attire and special jewelry coverage that includes lost or damaged wedding rings.

Coverage for Lost Deposits

Wedding insurance protects lost deposits, such as those paid to bakers, caterers, bridal boutiques and wedding venues that go out of business.

Additional Wedding Expenses

Wedding insurance can provide coverage for additional and unexpected expenses that come up, such as replacing a damaged wedding cake, spoiled food and other glitches in catering and entertainment.

Additional Wedding Coverage

Wedding Liability Insurance

Wedding liability insurance is an optional coverage that can covers damages to the venue or injuries to guests.

Liquor Liability Coverage

This is optional wedding day coverage that can protect against on premises alcohol-related accidents that can result in your liability. Liquor liability coverage is available up to the liability limit on the policy. Liability coverage must be purchased to acquire this additional wedding coverage option.
