ACE Air Cargo

URGENT DISPATCH!

The U.S. Post Office recently changed the way it flies priority mail to Unalaska/Dutch Harbor. It now relies upon a single passenger airline.

We regret any inconvenience this U.S.P.S. change may cause.

Fortunately, ACE Air Cargo remains committed to providing excellent reliable, daily freight and overnight ACEPAK shipping service between Anchorage and Unalaska/Dutch Harbor.

Happy Thanksgiving, and remember that ACE is standing by to meet your holiday shipping needs.
