Program Features

Fellows are provided with annual funding of $5,500, $6,500 and $7,000, in addition to a $2,000 Discovery Fund to develop their personal, professional, and cultural potential.

Internships

In NYC and overseas, Watson partners with leading nonprofit, for-profit, and government organizations. Internships empower fellows to widen their view of the workplace and deepen their experience in fields of interest.

Discovery Fund

The Discovery Fund extends a fellow's ability to self-initiate further professional exploration including research, fieldwork, conferences, and entrepreneurial ventures.

Seminars

Fellows participate in a seminar series designed to help them build confidence, perspective and understanding of the work world and themselves.

Cultural Events

Fellows attend a series of engaging cultural events that allow them to discover the diversity of New York City and encourage them to explore it further.

Journals

Paired with a thoughtful, experienced reader, fellows engage in an ongoing dialog during the summer to help them process the internship experience and potential career paths.

Insights & Solutions

Watson teaches fellows a creative problem solving process for addressing needs and opportunities of any size.

Cohort

Each Watson cohort is a close-knit group of peers with a variety of backgrounds and interests. Fellows inspire each other and become part of a lifelong network.

Mentoring

Watson staff, journal readers, and internship supervisors provide guided mentorship to help fellows personalize and deepen their fellowship experience.
