

Muser provides Duke students with regularly-scheduled, clearly articulated, and equitable access to research opportunities across all fields.

Research mentors are members of the Duke community who can provide meaningful research experiences for students. Mentors are graduate students, postdocs, lab technicians, research team leaders, principal investigators, and professors.

Timeline for Spring Round (for 2020 fall semester positions)

For Research Mentors

- Monday, March 16 at 8:00am - First day to post projects
- Monday, March 23 at 11:59pm - Last day to post projects
- Friday, April 3 at 8:00am - First day to accept applications
- Tuesday, April 14 at 11:59pm - Last day to accept applications

For Students

- Thursday, March 26 at 8:00am - First day to apply for projects
- Thursday, April 2 at 11:59pm - Last day to apply for projects

Recent Musings

Considerations for our current spring round of Muser

Monday, March 16, 2020 - 1:38pm

Muser Spring Round for Fall 2020 projects is now underway. We decided to go forward with our schedule, because, for some mentors and students, this is a wonderful opportunity to look optimistically forward to fall 2020 and have an ongoing, virtual program that can run in spite of the chaos in the world right now. If you are in this category, then we invite you to join us for this round.

Read more

For Mentors: Writing the Project Description

Saturday, October 19, 2019 - 4:34pm

For Mentors: Here is a list of tips and tricks for writing the Project Description!

Read more

View more posts

About us | Projects

© 2020 Duke University