WE ACCEPT CREDIT CARDS

HITS possesses over 30 years of functional expertise in the medical imaging, dental, and clinical communities. HITS has experience evaluating and integrating innovative, modern technologies to provide best value business solutions.

The HITS Model, developed over 30 years, is a proven, proprietary framework to create, manage and access EHRs efficiently and securely throughout the country. HITS has experience across all SDLC including requirements management, solution development, deployment and sustainment; and experience in integrating change management into solution delivery including user experience feedback and training.

HITS has a personal edge – we meet with you more frequently to develop more of a personal relationship than larger companies. HITS is lean and agile - our few layers of management makes decision times much quicker, allowing for flexibility and adaptability.

PAST PERFORMANCES

Serving as Scrum Master and Functional Manager, HITS supports the Defense Health Agency (DHA) fulfil its mission to modernize DoD and VA health care providers global visibility and access to artifacts and images generated during the health care delivery process and improve the benefits determination process by advising on and designing innovative technologies from the clinical perspective. [HAIMS]

HITS supports DHA by managing its web-based application, which is a key enabling technology within the Force Readiness and Health Assurance community, that utilizes a single definition, collection and analysis platform to generate a longitudinal occupational environmental health exposure record for Service members. HITS' Functional Analyst/Test Engineer and QA/CM Analyst provide varied services to ensure this application supports data collection in the field and subsequent data calls and provides the longitudinal exposure record for DoD employees based on individual and grouped exposures. [DOEHRHS-IH]

HITS is a certified service-disabled veteran, economically disadvantaged woman, and minority owned small business, headquartered in Woodbridge, VA.
