Cannabis Banking with Confidence

Compliant, Transparent and Sustainable Cannabis Banking, Financial Services, and Merchant Processing

See if you qualify for a business checking, merchant processing, or commercial finance account:

See If You Qualify

Help industry banking and electronic payment solutions. We educate banks on the risks and opportunities of providing service to our industries, help them implement their new programs and introduce them to pre-qualified industry customers matched to their criteria.

We partner with many industry-friendly payment solutions to provide customers access to compliant, transparent bank accounts tailored to their needs. We also collaborate with newly-emerging solutions, helping them with banking, compliance and marketing. As a result, we have access to the best and latest solutions available and can offer them to industry customers.

Since 2015, we have built and now offer our clients exclusive access to our proprietary Cannabis Banking Financial Network™. This growing consortium of more than 125 U.S.-based, industry-friendly and federally-insured financial institutions provides a full range of commercial banking services, including:

- Compliant, transparent business checking
- Cash depository
- MasterCard/Visa/Amex/Discover merchant services
- B2B electronic payment solutions
- Payroll and employee accounts
- Asset-based lending

Hear Why Our Clients Trust Fincann

"I spent several months unsuccessfully searching for a hemp-friendly checking account. Then I found FINCANN, and within a few days I was pre-approved to apply for a 100% transparent checking account with a major bank. A few weeks later I made my first deposit. The cannabis financial world is pretty difficult to navigate these days, so it was very

"FINCANN saved our business! We all know how fluid and ever-changing the cannabis and CBD industries can be on a moment's notice. FINCANN helped us secure an operational bank account with a cannabis friendly bank close to our area. We had been without banking for quite a while and it was getting difficult to transact sales and pay bills

"I found FINCANN after another similar group was unable to connect me with reasonable financial solutions and were not being completely transparent about what they were offering. Speaking to Nathaniel was like a breath of fresh air and gave me hope again for the small e-commerce business I am hoping to launch. He understood the obstacles I

"FINCANN saved our business! We all know how fluid and ever-changing the cannabis and CBD industries can be on a moment's notice. FINCANN helped us secure an operational bank account with a cannabis friendly bank close to our area. We had been without banking for quite a while and it was getting difficult to transact sales and pay bills without banking solutions. We were not sure how much longer we could hold on. It took some work and patience but it paid off. Thank you FINCANN for your personal service. We would recommend to anyone in a similar situation."
