Works great for downloading video. However there appears to be a glitch with my Sony Xperia X2, every time I launch the app it changes my display settings, switches off Super Vivid mode and I then have to manually go back into settings and change back, which is why a bit of an annoyance.

Its a great app compared to other video downloading apps. I rate it 4 stars because we can download videos from any where except you tube. But there is a small problem, i can't download videos from tik tok app. Please fix it...
