Training Overview

Our professional learning opportunities provide support for implementation of the phonemic awareness lessons in a classroom setting. They also give teachers and staff a common language around the lessons, fidelity of implementation with the phonemic awareness skills, and consistency of instruction among classrooms. Our PD team has extensive experience with the curriculum, and consists of trained teachers and Reading Specialists who have a passion for teaching reading.

Erica is passionate about dual language education and believes in providing all students with the early foundational literacy skills that they need to be successful.

Upcoming Webinars

Introduction to Heggerty Phonemic Awareness for Individual Educators and Parents

Wednesday, July 22, 2020
4:30 PM (US Central Standard Time)

This live webinar training will focus on the published phonemic awareness curriculum written by Dr. Michael Heggerty. During the 60-minute webinar, we will provide a concise explanation defining phonemic awareness, why it is important, and participants will be provided with a brief explanation of the skills that are included in each lesson. Participants will have the opportunity to submit questions both before and during the webinar, which the presenter will pause to answer openly at various points.
