Greater Metropolitan Kansas City, MO Areas

High school students will have opportunities to participate in a confidential group discussions and process groups with their peers, mentors and counselors. Students will meet monthly.

Objectives

- Students will process information to understand and maximize his or her given potential, leading to self-actualization and self-worth.
- Students will understand the emotional effects of social media and its potential impact on his or her life.
- Students will understand how their behavior impacts their family, classmates and teachers.
- Students will understand how to positively influence others through self-discipline and self-control.
- Students will receive support from peers.
- Students will learn communication skills to enhance his or her relationship with others.

GP Talk is designed for students to understand more about his or herself and others in a safe environment. Group sessions provide the opportunity for students to explore patterns of thinking and behaviors that are similar to how they relate to others in life.
