ABOUT US

Contour is an opportunistic real estate firm that develops, owns and operates property throughout the United States.

Whether it's land entitlements, new construction or value-adding solutions for existing properties, we have decades of experience in regions across the country. This experience gives us hindsight, insight and foresight regarding the ever-shifting real estate landscape. We're experts on market cycles, always ready to make informed decisions about what projects to take on in just the right place and at just the right time. We stand at the vanguard of emerging markets, design trends and relevant lifestyle shifts and we're among the first to implement the latest industry products and services.
