Experience

Superior Travel Experiences

Experience provides exceptional student experiences through specialty educational tours and summer programs. We have worked tirelessly over the past seven years to solve all the problems schools and organizations face in developing and operating educational tours in North America's most desirable locations. Let us apply our proven expertise and services to help your school or organization create an amazing North American experience for your students.

Customized Education —

Our Experience team is expert in developing customized curricula to meet a school or organization's unique educational needs. Whether students are in North America for one week or one month, we will work with program leaders to create a tailor-made education that is geared to their desired focus, student level, and learning outcomes. We are proud of the custom programs we have developed for other schools and look forward to working with new partners to create an exceptional learning experience for their students.

Creating the Perfect Curriculum for Students

Knord school in Denmark asked us to develop a marketing programs in which students had a chance to learn more about Starbucks' global marketing efforts. We created a Starbucks market entry project for the program, then brought in a member of Starbucks' global marketing team to provide feedback on student presentations. Students got an insider's take on the company's marketing, but also how one of the world's most famous companies operates on a global level.

Industry Connections

We've created special partnerships with leading companies in each of our locations enables students allowing students the opportunity to get a behind-the-scenes take on business and to connect with industry professionals. Whether it be a company visit, special workshop, or industry expert guest lectures, we can create a program that will educate and inspire your students.
