The Wonder World Kids go to Kindergarten

Peru

Peru is a country in South America. The Wonder World Kids travel to Peru to find the missing llamas. Llamas live in the mountains of Peru. They help to carry heavy things for their owners. Children in Peru go to school when they are six years old. They start with cycle one, which is first and second grade.

Llama Lily is missing!
Write down her tag number:

What color would you like to color Lily?

The Wonder World Kids go to First Grade

Austria

Austria is a country across the Atlantic Ocean in Europe. The Wonder World Kids travel to Austria to help the dancing white horses. Austria is famous for its old buildings and beautiful music. Children start school when they are six or seven years old. They learn how to read and write in first grade.

Have you ever seen a real cuckoo clock?
What sound does it make?
Help Fynn to color the cuckoo clock!

Lily loves horses! Tell her about your favorite animal!

The Wonder World Kids go to Second Grade

Peru

Peru is a country on the West Coast of South America. The Wonder World Kids travel to Peru to help the missing llamas. Peru was the home of the Incas. They built beautiful cities hundreds of years ago using large rocks and wood. You can still visit the ruins of their ancient cities today. The most famous is called Machu Picchu, pronounced "Ma-choo Pee-choo." It is also known as the City in the Clouds.

Llama Lily is missing!
Write down her tag number and add two to find out how many llamas are in the herd:

Llamas can have many different colors. Which one are you going to use?

Fynn is looking for the missing words to solve the case:

Llamas live in a large _____. When they are happy, llamas like to _____ to each

The Wonder World Kids go to Third Grade

Austria

Austria is a country across the Atlantic Ocean in Europe. The Wonder World Kids travel to Austria to help the dancing white horses, the Lipizzaner. You pronounce their name "Lee-Pee-Saw-Ner." Austria is famous for its old buildings and beautiful music. The famous composer Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart lived there from 1756-1791. He performed his music for the empress when he was only five years old.

Look at the cuckoo clock! The Wonder World Kids have an appointment to see a performance of the white stallions at 9:10 a.m. How much time do they have to get ready this morning?

What colors will you use to color the clock?

Fynn wants to know, "What is your favorite animal in the whole world?"

The Wonder World Kids go to Fourth Grade

Peru

Peru is a country on the West Coast of South America. The Wonder World Kids travel to Peru to help the missing llamas. Peru was the home of the Incas. They built beautiful cities hundreds of years ago without any modern tools. You can still visit the ruins of their ancient cities today. The most famous is called Machu Picchu, pronounced "Ma-choo Pee-choo." It is also known as the City in the Clouds.

Llama Lily is missing!
Write down her tag number and add four to find out how many adult llamas are in her herd. 1/3 of all the adult llamas have a baby llama. How many baby llamas are there in total?

Llamas can have many different colors. Which one are you going to use?

The Wonder World Kids have solved "The Mystery of the Dancing Horses" and "The Case of the Lost Llamas" so far. Invent your own title for their next adventure! Which country are they going to visit and what kind of animal will they save?
