

Blue Soul Earth's mission is to raise global consciousness and accelerate ascension. Some of the services we offer include private channeling sessions, group sessions in person or via Skype/Zoom, Blue Soul Circles, events and workshops. We can also work off-site on a spiritual trip, cruise, safari or retreat or at a private dinner.

Anthony has the gift of clairvoyance, claircognition, clairsentience (psychometry) and is a trance medium, whereas Renee has the gift of clairsentience, claircognition, psychography (automatic writing), is an intuitive and an empath. We combine our abilities to help you on your Soul's Journey, whether that be connecting to the Spiritual Realm during a private session, event, with a group or helping you transcend in your life or business.

Trance Channeling

You can hire us for a private trance channeling experience. Renee & Anthony both act as vessels or conduits to the other wide while Anthony embodies high Spiritual Beings with healing messages of love, support, and your Soul's Purpose. Anthony's gift is unique in that he embodies spiritual beings who convey messages of wisdom, healing and your Soul's Purpose – read About Channeling to understand the different kinds of mediums and how what we do is not only unique but rare.

For over 25 years, Anthony has served as an established and respected bi-lingual speech pathologist and therapist in both New York and California. By working with families and kids with special needs across demographics, including the South Bronx, he has seen and experienced deep suffering. As a natural empath and intuitive who has experience with other cultures from having lived in ten countries around the world, Renee acts as a vessel for Feminine Divine Energy to come through from the Other Side and as a grounding cord for the space we hold.

It is truly a unique ability we are honored to share with you as it has been validating and transformative for many.

Channeling to a Group

Currently, Blue Soul Circles are held in San Francisco and northern California in a sacred space. Our goal is to expand Blue Soul Circle experiences to other locations around the globe, so if you are interested in hiring us to lead one in your company, group, club, organization or even home, contact us.

You'll be asked to fill out a short questionnaire after booking so we can best cater to your group's needs and desires. A crystal grid intention kicks off the event, which is personalized based on what the group would like to collectively manifest, i.e., prosperity, connection, healing, love, renewal, etc.

The circles serve to help those interested in accelerating consciousness, yearning for a deeper exploration of spirituality and how mindfulness and a spiritual life can transform who we are and everything around us.

There is no religious dogma here – all of our work at Blue Soul is about embracing everyone's diverse gifts and honoring all divine walks of life, whether you stem from Buddhism, Shamanism, Christianity, Islam, Judaism, Paganism or perhaps its none of the above and you simply have faith in Mother Earth or meditate and practice yoga as your source of inspiration and life charter. As long as your practice involves tapping into a higher consciousness, it doesn't matter where you sit, the labels you wear or the beliefs that you hold.

We are currently booking circles for group sizes of 4-50. The results for people have ranged from validating, affirming, peaceful and loving to aligned, deeply healing and transformative. Read our testimonials to get an idea of what others have experienced from one-on-one sessions and our Blue Soul Circles.

Channel & Speak at Event or Workshop

Hire us to channel and speak at an event or workshop. Types of workshops that would make a great fit for the work we do include: building conscious businesses, living your life purpose, accelerating consciousness, East meets West philosophies, living your truth, spiritual and consciousness events, manifesting a business or new life, periods of transition, personal and professional empowerment, healing workshops, etc.

We find that the most effective group size is 25 or smaller although we can do workshops for up to 50, which include background on mediumship and channeling, sound healing and crystal grid board intentions. If you're holding a larger event or conference, we recommend break-out sessions throughout the day to accommodate more people in smaller groups so we have enough time to connect with people more personally and directly.

Curate or Lead a Spiritual Trip, Retreat or Cruise

We have a ton of experience in the travel industry. Renee has traveled to over 90 countries, has lived in ten and is also the founder of We Blog the World, which has over 1,000 pages of content on inspiring destinations, hotels, wellness stays, safaris, cruises, food/wine, spiritual retreats, events and more. Its tagline is Transformative Travel, which is about transformation inside and out, on the road and in our own backyard at home. It starts within.

What a better way to awaken and ignite your soul than to experience the Spiritual Realm in your favorite destination, on a sacred ground or during a relaxing cruise? We can channel the Other Side in a designated space on a trip (we find that our spiritual work is enhanced when in nature or on spiritually charged ground), on a cruise, safari or retreat.
