Question: How large is the largest pocket? Will it hold a 12 inch Tablet?
Answer: It's big enough to comfortably fit a laptop in. It just can't support the weight of a laptop. I love mine 😊

Question: Is the netting trim on the navy caddy black or navy? It looks black in the picture. I do not want black. :(
Answer: Dear,
Maybe the picture is not obvious enough, our product is navy. Don't worry about the color.

Question: Will the straps fit around a 2x6?
Answer: Yes, I believe so. Straps appear plenty long so it should work.

Question: Can this be secured under a cushion like with heavy duty pins?
Answer: I guess so. The straps are heavy duty with velcro on them so it would have to be a fairly big pin to get through it. Also there is a lot of storage room in them so you will find it quite heavy if you fill it up.

★★★★★ This item is super sturdy and stores a ton

Reviewed in the United States on June 10, 2018

Color: Grey | Verified Purchase

This item is super sturdy and stores a ton, I put a Mac book air 13" 2 large text books, and a scientific calculator, and there was still plenty of room for more. The caddy definitely can hold a lot of weight so no worry about that! also this item stores very nicely it folds super thin to save space when not in use.

★★★★★ Using it on my RECLINER

Reviewed in the United States on September 26, 2017

Color: Grey | Verified Purchase

I am using this on my reclining chair. NOT the manufacturer's intended use, but it IS the reason I bought it. With a little trial and error, I was able to secure it with a bungee cord wrapped around the armrest, and passed through the hanging loops of the organizer. I had to mess with the Velcro straps a little to get the unit to hang with the tension/length I desired, but aside from changing where the Velcro actually grips itself, I made no actual physical modifications. I simply slid the Velcro down so there would be less loops at the top- effectively shortening the height of the unit by an inch or two. I have this on a grey recliner, and it blends in beautifully. I have two large TV remotes (old Dish Network DVR style), an Xbox controller, and a few more smaller remotes and an 8" tablet and a house phone in the pockets. I keep the heavier or bulkier items towards the back larger pockets, but have kept the Xbox controller in the mesh area. I did not spend much time trying to get it perfect, but I am considering adding some of my own Velcro to the inside top of the two large back pockets- just to give it a more streamlined look. But as it is, it all works out great and looks good enough for me. Sturdy feeling unit. It should be noted that my recliner does have storage in the armrests, and it makes no difference at all with the bungee cord and the way it is set up. In fact I think it made it easier. I checked my other recliner which has normal armrests, and I saw no reason why I could not have one hooked up on that chair in the same bungee fashion. I'm very pleased with this purchase and how it has worked out for me. No more multi remote/phone etc slop all over my floor and armrests.

★★★★★ Great for dorm room

Reviewed in the United States on November 19, 2018

Color: Grey | Verified Purchase

I got this for my daughter to use in college dorm room. Her bed has solid side rails so I bought Tidy house space saver over door hook hanger pack of 2 for $6.49 from Amazon to hang this over the rail. Worked great. Her bed is raised so her dresser fits under it. This holds her cell phone, ear buds, keys, flash light, snacks, pen and so much more right at her finger tips. Nice, strong material and neutral grey color goes with everything.

★★★★☆ Depends what you get

Reviewed in the United States on January 7, 2020

Color: Green | Verified Purchase

The first one I received wasn't sewn right at the top, so I sent it back for a replacement. What's weird is the new one is sewn correctly along the top, but the velcro is on a different side of the straps. The first one allowed you to wrap the straps around the bed frame and the velcro was on the side facing the organizer. This one, wrapping the straps around, the velcro winds up on the side facing the bed, not the organizer...? It suits my needs overall, but I will probably wind up sewing some velcro to the other side of the straps. Annoying.

★★★★★ Very convenient for a child on the top bunk

Reviewed in the United States on February 7, 2019

Color: Blue | Verified Purchase

I bought this for my son because he sleeps on the top bunk and always seems to misplace things up there LOL. This is very convenient. It holds a lot. And it has different compartments. I wish we would have known about it sooner. He definitely likes being able to find his things now.

★★★★★ It fits on their bunkbed - a 2" x 6" board

Reviewed in the United States on January 26, 2018

Color: Blue | Verified Purchase

I purchased this item for my 2 grandsons - ages 11 & 14. They have trouble keeping track of their remotes, phones, & tablets. I think they are doing a better job of remembering to use the organizer so that they can easily find these items. It fits well on their bunkbeds. I purchased it a month ago, so can't really say much about the durability at this time.

★★★★☆ Almost perfect!

This item is a good addition to any dorm bed; however, in the case of my grandson's bed, we could not get the straps through the bed's foundation to adequately place and tighten the straps. I am sure he will find a way to use and install it.

★★★★★ Very pleased for the amount purchased. Better quality than expected

Reviewed in Australia on July 22, 2019

Great product. Sturdy material. Side mesh pockets are too small for an average drink bottle. Velcro is quality and long straps so can change hanging height. Would definitely recommend. Recieved alot of compliments in hospital when i had bub. Pockets are deep so no worry of things falling out either.
