Pop Up Pantries

Pop Up Pantries allow us to come into a community with a box truck full of food; pantry staples, fresh produce, frozen meats, dairy. As with all of our programs, there are no income restrictions.

Check the schedule for a pop up near you by checking the pinned post:

Backpack Program

Students are given a bag of food every Friday to take home and get them through the weekend. Bags include easy to prepare, nutritious foods, and fresh produce.

In School Pantries

At the high school level, we introduce an in school pantry which is self serve to all students. This is self policed and teaches students to self advocate for their needs. Foods are grab and go nutritious snacks as well as food to be taken home and prepared.

Summer Feeding

Weekly boxes of food during the summer. Food is easy to prepare and enough to keep their bellies full for a week.
