

In the News!

Additional Information

https://www.northcentralpa.com/life/covid-19\_local\_resources/free-food-for-kids-during-covid-19-shutdown/article\_33c46d10-6bab-11ea-a646-a379e6851cc0.html

Schools and organizations dedicated to ending hunger are offering free pickup meals for children across Northcentral Pa.

Most districts are offering food to anyone 18 and under, no questions asked about residency or any other issue.

Child Hunger Outreach Partners is hosting pop-up food pantries in the Northern Tier, along with distributing more than 18,000 packed bags of food to school districts last week.

Upcoming pop-up pantries in the Northern Tier are scheduled by Child Hunger Outreach Partnership. Follow on Facebook for further updates.

Athens Area School District

Bagged food for 3-4 days of meals was delivered to the following locations at the following times last Monday. Check the district Facebook page for confirmation of this route and other updates.

- Hornbrook Park, 1:30 p.m.
- McCloes Community Park, 1:30 p.m.
- Gateway Apartments, 1:45 p.m.
- Ridgebury Fire Dept., 2:00 p.m.
- Ulster Fire Hall, 2:00 p.m.
- Rowe, Kmart Plaza, Valley Playland, 2:30 p.m.

Canton Area School District

