dopeculinaryrxns Dope Culinary RXNs is a science based food and cannabis consulting and product company, and division of LizAH Consulting, LLC. With over a decade of food product development experience, and expertise in the budding cannabis industry, our services take your infused products to a "higher" level. We specialize in the formulation, development, commercialization and quality of batch and mass production food + cannabis products. We have active consulting contracts with dispensaries and companies in #recreational and #legalized states, with expertise and knowledge to offer to those on the rise. Whether it be food and beverage, cannabis or infused food and beverage, working with us will certainly lead to DOPE products 🌱💚
