Awesome Quality at Great Price

I was thoroughly impressed with the T50. The packaging was incredible, the build quality is top notch, and an amazing set of features for the price even if the price was twice as high. Wireless charging, IPX8 waterproofing, high quality 8mm sound driver, and bluetooth v5.0 are just a few of the high end features the T50's have to offer. Pairing them with my phone was too easy. All you have to do is take them out of the charging case and they are ready for pairing(just a quick note make sure you choose T50, the right earbud is the primary). The bluetooth v5.0 mean they have a stronger connection and longer distance. I can leave

Impressive quality as far as price is concerned

In order to find the best Bluetooth headset for less than $50, I frantically bought some Bluetooth headsets, which are my favorite ones I have tried so far. They are light and comfortable, even when jumping and running, which is very good for the gym. Their isolation effect is very good, which is good for the gym. Playing some noisy music that I don't like is also very good isolation, I can listen to my music with a reasonable volume. So far, their charges are not bad, but I just use for a few hours at a time. I also like its touch control function, and when in use, the light will not stay on like other pairs. So far, I am really satisfied with my purchase!

Must buy

To be honest, they sound better, and even the connection is better than my first generation airpods. Rubber head helps shield background noise Very good, so I bought these. The touch control case is a bit frustrating habit, but it functions well. Can't really believe This true wireless earbud is priced at only $46.99, and the sound quality and use effect are better than my airpods. The original price of airpods is $160. I am usually a big supporter of Apple, but this Bluetooth headset has beaten Apple's regular airpods, even airpod professionals may. Already recommended to a few friends

Write this review after using the wireless Bluetooth headset for some time.The sound is good and loud.Bass and treble are also good.The price is reasonable and the look is great.Easy to use and perfect for your ears.You can wear them for a walk or a jog,It's not going to fall out of your ear.So far, they have exceeded my expectations.These will quickly appear in the list of Bluetooth devices on your nearby phone or computer.The connection went smoothly.Other headphones I've used, but this one is sleeker and more convenient.Orange also played a role in the triumph of the spring Equinox . Your taste will definitely increase the number of heads turned!

Great Earbuds and Cute!

Reviewed in the United States on June 21, 2020

Color: Rose Gold Verified Purchase

I have small ears so a lot of ear buds can cause my ears to hurt after awhile and these don't! They're super cute, affordable, good sound, easy to pair and quick charging. The only improvements that I would say could be made is the case makes it a little tricky to get the buds out and I didn't see anywhere that it mentions the top of the case swivels instead of opens.

This product is easy to connect.They are very comfortable.No one ever complained about me when I called.I mostly talk with my hands when I'm driving. The voice is unbelievable.I thought there was a leak in the building until I realized it was from the show I was watching.I've been using it for at least an hour a day for a week, and it still has 65 percent power.The box feels smooth and firm.The box has a strong magnetic pull to keep the Bluetooth headset grains in place.Highly recommended.

Great mini light Bluetooth headset

Reviewed in the United States on June 22, 2020

Color: Rose Gold Verified Purchase

This is my best Bluetooth headset ever, and I've gotten rid of some expensive "branded" headphones that not only suck, but don't last very long,They're uncomfortable and don't fit my ears well.This Bluetooth headset is like a dream, so good that I really don't want to take them out, so when I was listening to YouTube last night before I went to sleep, because they would quarantine my husband from snoring,I was surprised to find how well these things were made, and I was glad to buy them.I will buy some more as a gift, which is definitely worth recommending.
