So cute! Great fabric quality and the "ear savers" work both ways - with the thick side up or the thin side up

They could be better. First time I used one, the button fell off by the end of first use. Second one, buttons were not evenly placed. Third one, same issue and could not use for intended purpose because mask would not stay on. However, cute headbands and that is what I will use them for. Good price just for that. If you are into sewing, you can adjust the buttons.

★★★★★ Great idea! Ears aren't sensitive anymore!

Why didn't I think of this? I wear headbands all the time. It's my staple hair styling tool other than scrunchies. My ears were getting a workout between my glasses, elastic from the face mask and the pressure from my plastic headbands. I was contemplating getting some of those silicone face mask extenders but didn't like the idea of it getting caught up in my hair in the back or having a hair dent. These fabric headbands are comfy and well made. A bonus, at least for me personally, is that these headbands make my face mask feel more fitted and secure. Masks seem to fit just a tad big and I didn't feel confident about all particles being kept out. The placement of the buttons is approximately 2 inches above where the elastic use to wrap around my ears keeping the mask snug and secure. My glasses don't fog up as much now that there's a tighter seal around my nose and my mask doesn't come off each time I remove my glasses. I really like this product!

They fit perfect and they are thick enough to make them sit well on my head. They do not slide around. They are working perfectly!
