I put this together alone 8 months pregnant. its SO light weight. holds my little one perfectly. The base is super neat and easy to put in the car. no painful hands from trying to shove a seatbelt through the seat. everything is attached by what almost seems like industrial hooks. Such an upgrade from the Eddie B I had for my first kiddo.

First of all, it's super easy to assemble/store. I love that I can keep my baby in the car seat when I go to put him in the stroller. It faces me so I'm not paranoid about not being able to see him. I'm definitely making the most out of the carseat though because my baby is a little over 2 months now and he's small, but his length is just taking off and I fear he's going to grow out of the car seat soon, but still no regrets! Also, the stroller is amazing. I have no problem turning it in any direction. I'm a new mommy and I got to say I am happy with the price and quality of this purchase!

We bought this stroller twice and not because the first one didn't last. I'm a runner and put many, many miles on our 1st expedition with our first baby. Just had our 2nd baby and had to buy this again. This stroller holds up to abuse, nothing ever broke on it in its almost 5 years of use.

The stroller seems very nice and easy to fold. You will have to put the wheels on. I read complaints of the carseat... so I bought a janabebe head and body support to install in carseat - problem solved! This helps your child to be comfortable and guarantee the support they need! Overall, I love the carseat and stroller especially for the price.

I love this stroller system. I prefer a jogger stroller over a traditional stroller for everyday use (not just for "jogging") because the real tires are much easier to maneuver over bumps, curbs etc. meanwhile the car seat clicks into the stroller easily and securely.

So happy with this purchase. When I was looking to buy this I read reviews and happened to see one that said it was very hard to get on and off the base and on and off the stroller. I think the person that wrote this review had this problem because my husband and I did as well in the beginning but there is a small piece of cardboard that needs to be removed from underneath that you might not notice unless you're truly were really looking for a cause as to why it's so hard to get clipped from the base. Once we removed it it worked perfectly I couldn't be happier with this purchase, such a great value for the dollar!

So happy with this purchase! Great deal for the price. One of the main things that drew me to his set was the big wheels on the stroller. Everything comparable was nearly double the price. The car seat is light weight, and the stroller seems sturdy and smooth. The only negative I can say so far is that the instruction were a little confusing... there were so many languages it was hard to find the English part that I needed.

The wheels are incredibly smooth. Turns very nicely. The carseat snaps right in to the stroller. The only thing I noticed with the buttons you squeeze to move the carrying handle is a little difficult but not impossible. So far this is the only downside I have experienced with this stroller/car seat combo. The material is sort of like a luggage or gym bag material but I bought a separate insert that covers the seat and provides extra support for their body and head so this wasnt an issue for us. This is my first time buying a stroller and car seat though so I do not have any other experiences to compare it to, but so far we love it.

This was such a great deal, very cute, good quality, fast shipping, my sister loved! This came from the Amazon wear house and said was an opened box. I got for like 70$ normally way more expensive. When I got it I expected to be dirty or broke but it was in the box and looked brand new.

After much research I'm so glad I went with this stroller. I love to hike so I wanted a jogger stroller I could also push around in stores without it being huge. It is 4-6 inches shorter than the Graco jogger I was looking at and 5-10 pounds lighter. It fits nicely in the trunk of my Nissan Altima and still leaves plenty of room for groceries! The stroller handles well on grass and rock without being so big when I take it into stores. I haven't really jogged with it but the front wheel hasn't given me trouble as other reviewers mentioned. The price is right and I couldn't be happier! The only two downsides I've encountered so far are: 1. The shade on the car seat isn't big enough to cover my baby. When you have the stroller the shades meet in the middle and it's fine, but without the stroller the shade is often insufficient but I knew that going in. 2. The car seat neck support isn't great for newborns and there isn't much padding behind their heads. But the cup holders and phone holder are super useful and the storage underneath is awesome.

My mom bought it for us, and we just love it. This is my first child and we had no idea what to expect from a travel system. The stroller is really easy to maneuver and the locking system for the wheels works wonderful. It folds very easy and it's light weight for me to pick up. (I'm petite so this is a plus.) The car seat has been just amazing. My daughter loves it. We did have to purchase the padding for the straps that go around her neck but we have had no problems with it at all. Overall I would recommend this travel system to new parents, because it's so easy to use and safe for our little ones!!

I took a chance on this stroller. My wife put me in charge of finding us a good stroller before our baby arrived. She wanted something that was easy to use, not very heavy and that it was able to maneuver around smoothly. When she first saw it she was full of doubts and unsure it was going to work for her. However, once she started to actually use it she change her mind quick! Now she loves the damn thing and won't stop using. I really dodge a bullet in this one phew! Totally recommend it!

Bought this for my daughter. Her husband had it put together in less than a half hour. HIGHLY recommend. Wish they had this when my kids were born! You can take the car seat out of the base and snap into the stroller quick and easy and likewise back to the base in the car when needed. You never have to worry about the base part once it is strapped in as suggested. That is a lot less hassle and so much less time consuming then in my day! Love the stroller. The wheels are nice and thick and are designed to easily traverse all different ground areas. Easy to push, very structurally sound. Highly recommend :)
