About this item

- 1. [Wired TV sound bar]: The cable TV sound bar can be connected to your device via Bluetooth. It is easy to connect and it only takes a few seconds to complete the setup (the speaker Bluetooth name is BKS-60). You can also use AUX and optical fiber to connect different multimedia devices, and insert a TF card to enjoy your favorite music!
- 2. [Home Theater system]: Home theater speaker with powerful and high-quality speakers, this sound bar not only provides clear sound in a wide tonal range, but also provides you with 3D surround sound in home theater.
- 3. [Splitable and Combinable Soundbar]: There are not 3 items of home speakers, but it supports splitting and combining. It can be combined into a 37-inch speaker and placed on the TV cabinet, or it can be divided into 2 18.5-inch independent bases (connected with a yellow audio cable to work at the same time), the stereo effect fills the room.
- 4. [Remote Control Speaker]: You can use the remote control to turn the sound bar on and off, skip forward and backward, the speaker also has a button function that can be used to adjust the volume, skip tracks, and of course you can turn off the sound bar!
- 5. [Soundbar Speaker]: There are 4 buttons on the speaker, the first M button, long press is the power on and off button, short press can freely switch between Bluetooth and AUX wired auxiliary input mode. The second is the pause and play button. After successfully connecting the device, click the "+" and "-" buttons to switch to the next or previous song, and long press the "+" and "-" to increase or decrease the volume.

These are terrible! I was super excited to get them in the mail today and not only will they not play any sound from my TV, regardless of what mode I set them on, when I connected my phone via bluetooth the sound is scratchy and broken. I will be returning these ASAP for something decent :(

Came super late, the quality is good for the price but there isn't much in the way of sound adjustments. Still better then my speakers on my 1500 dollar tv.

★★★★☆ The speaker

Reviewed in the United States on August 28, 2020

It's not loud as it should be. It's not wireless like it said it was and one don't work without it being attached to the other one with the yellow cord.
