DESCRIPTION REVIEWS

Ultra-lightweight but warm enough, with warmth and breathability, softness and durability, moisture wicking, zero pilling and anti-static functions. The waterproof case keeps your hands dry and warm in snow and light rain (not immersed in water). Sensitive touch screen: the thumb and index finger are coated with conductive material, and the winter gloves for women and men are sensitive enough to be used on smartphones, tablets, smart watches, Free control on the GPS map, you can flexibly send text messages without taking off the touch screen gloves, tap and slide

Anti-slip design: Winter cycling gloves have silicone particles on the palm and index finger to help hold small things firmly

Classic conventional gloves: Touch screen gloves are not only suitable for running, walking, biking, horse riding, hiking, golfing, driving, outdoor sports and working outdoors on cold days, but can also be used as regular gloves; but also suitable for ski gloves, Heavy leather gloves, use under lining gloves
