

Create. The who, what, when, of the celebration.

Give. It's not about reaching a financial goal. It's about putting your money toward a common gift with purpose.

Invite guests privately through email or text with a personal link.

Record Video. Skip the card, personalize the gift with your face and voice.

Receive financial contributions and personalized video wishes towards exactly what you want for the celebration.

Send. That's it, no standing in line at the post office for you.

What does it cost?

The 'Host' will pay a small flat fee of $5.99 to 'Create a Huddle' and invite guests to participate for free.
