Suitable for sensitive eyes and contact wear....

i just got this Mascara. i haven't really liked to wear Mascara since i was a teenager, but in the past year or so i like to wear it once in a while. i don't have long lashes or that much so a bit of Mascara looks good to wear sometimes. It doesn't clump or irritate and is fragrance free. Lashes feel soft after. Here is a video. i hope it helps. Sabiene:)

After Dozens of Brands This is My Favorite with Just a Couple Gripes

At forty-something, I have used dozens of brands of mascara. ...From Mary Kay to Cover Girl. I have naturally long lashes, but I am blonde and fair. I need mascara to make my lashes pop. And, I swear this actually adds length onto your lashes. I refuse to get on the fake eyelash bandwagon. Frankly, it sounds like a pain. I don't think I need them. At least, not with L'Oréal Voluminous Original Mascara.
