For Businesses

Prospoly is dedicated to ensuring that immigrant-owned small businesses within our community optimize, grow, and prosper. We deliver personalized solutions, tailored delivery services, and our business model is built on a trust and a culturally and linguistically responsive approach.

Why Us

Prospoly puts the client first and our team works closely with clients to better understand their needs and wants. We are a group of business and strategy experts that have experience in bookkeeping, tax compliance, business operations and strategy, marketing, and finance. The team also shares a passion for our community. We prioritize your comfort, availability, and success.

With our consulting services, we can help you begin a strategy or business plan, discuss your current operations and advise on how to maximize profits, efficiency and more. For more information on the services we provide refer to the services page.

At Prospoly, we are with you every step of the way!

Goals

- Improve financial stability for your small business through increased revenues and profits for both your business and yourself
- Create a safe environment for you as a small business owner to feel confident in leading your businesses by providing services through a cultural and linguistic approach
- Foster economic development in the communities your small business serves by equipping you with the tools and resources needed to lead a successful business

How It Works

- Clients have the option to select between a project-based solution model and a subscription-based solution model based on their challenges and needs.
- Interested clients book an appointment where an initial assessment and evaluation of your needs are conducted for service recommendations. Clients also get a detailed process of our work.
- A service package is agreed upon and Prospoly will match you with a Junior Consultant who will deliver the services upon supervision of senior management.
- Prospoly conducts rigorous selection processes to hire Junior Consultants with the required fundamental skills and cultural competency to deliver the service.

Make sure to book an appointment if you would like to learn more!

For Students

Prospoly, connects low-income, diverse students to professional development avenues in the business and entrepreneurship sector. Our goal is to develop pathways to business and entrepreneurship jobs for underrepresented students that otherwise wouldn't have access to opportunities to get hands-on experience working with a business in Los Angeles.

Purpose

Prospoly believes in the power of communities helping communities. On one hand, we see a community of immigrant small business owners who need assistance in the areas of Operations, Marketing, Strategy, and Management. On the other hand, we see a community of business scholars who possess knowledge in the areas of Operations, Marketing, Strategy, and Management but require relevant and meaningful work experience. Prospoly aims to connect both communities. Prospoly, connects low-income, diverse students to professional development avenues in the business and entrepreneurship sector. Our goal is to develop pathways to business and entrepreneurship jobs for underrepresented students that otherwise wouldn't have access to opportunities to get hands-on experience working with a business in Los Angeles.

Goals

- Provide Access: Our efforts bring underserved communities into the business industry through internships, workshops, and career preparation.
- Provide Education: Provide hands-on learning opportunities and inform students on the state of the business/entrepreneurship industry, skills, and educational requirements.
- Provide Professional Development: Develop career pathways through resume building, interviewing skills, and professional mentorship.
