Erin Deeley, BS

Equine Assisted Life Coach

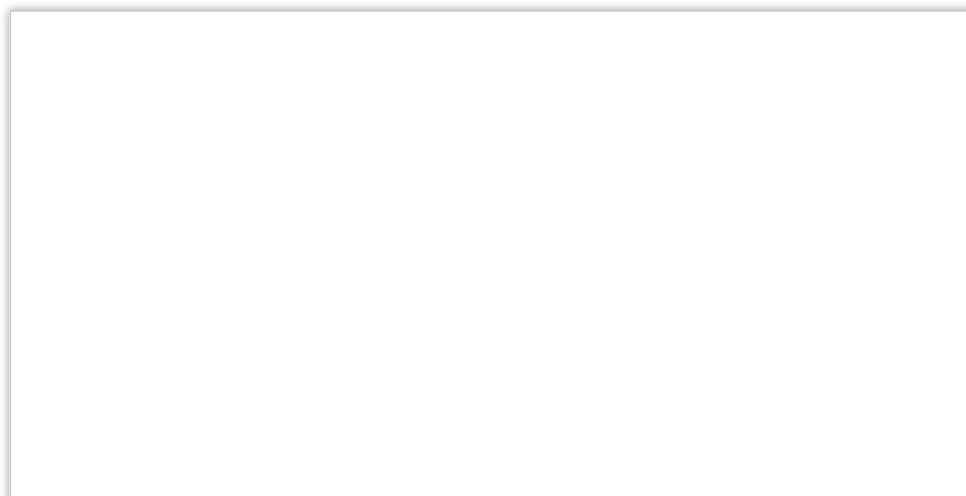

Erin has been a lifelong horse lover and spends her free time riding the trails & dressage with her two horses, Gideon and Belle. She has worked as a professional in the equine industry since 2016 and has worked in places from carriage driving, to therapeutic horseback riding, to summer camps as a ranch manager, to owning her own horseback riding lesson business.

Erin has her associates in Equine Science from Scottsdale Community College, Bachelor's of Science in Nonprofit Management and Leadership from Arizona State University, and is pursuing her Masters in Counseling starting in the Fall of 2021. She is also a Certified Therapeutic Riding Instructor with the Professional Association of Therapeutic Horsemanship. Her dream is to become a professional equine assisted counselor as she is currently enrolled in her Masters in Counseling program!

Sessions range from $75-100 for a 1 hour session with Erin and her horses at her stable in Mesa 732 N. 82nd St. Mesa, AZ 85207

FAQ

Do I need a service dog or an emotional assistance animal?

Jacqui can help as she offers a one hour consult to help the client determine if an assistance animal (cat, dog, bunny, guinea pig) can benefit them. She will match them with the appropriate breed as well as trainer.

How do I parent my child more effectively?

No need to be a current client for these parent coaching sessions. One hour of effective techniques you can implement the same day! Meetings are virtual or via phone. 10 min free consults available.

What do I do with my out of control child?

Jacqui can help a family determine the best possible treatment modality for children

What to do with my out of sync horse?

With Jacqui's background as a horse trainer she offers guidance to owners on how to bond better with their horses and understand their language so they can become a great team. Serving the East Valley only.
