Comments: Absolutely horrible. Please, please, please avoid this product. Zipper WILL fail. They are not worth $5 let alone $30. Trash product.

From: Matt: Pennsylvania 2/20/21

Comments: Bought 10, all 10 have now failed. The zipper is complete trash. I contact Bass Mafia and after a dozen emails and several phone calls I finally got a reply, they admitted the product had an issue and said they are in the process or redesigning it. They did offer me a replacement, 1 Money Bag. Spent over $300+ on their product and when it failed within a year they offered me a $10 replacement. That was now 2 months ago, and again after several more emails and phone calls I have still yet to hear back from them. My advise I would stay away from all Bass Mafia products. They are poor quality and their customer service is a complete joke.

From: Mike: Walnut Creek, CA 6/15/20

Comments: Great concept, but poor execution on the zippers. I wish I had read all these other reviews before I got the two bags I have. Zippers are a total pain.

From: Andy: Georgia 4/15/20

Comments: $30 for a little bag with zippers that are complete garbage, all my tackle fell out of it while walking to the boat ramp. 2nd zipper went out a couple fishing trips later. Bass mafia said they will replace but I have to pay to ship it just to get another cheap overpriced bag that will be useless in a couple months. For the money it should have a zipper kind of like what is on the yeti lunchbags.

From: Unknown: VA 4/14/20

Comments: I had issues with the zippers on several of the briefcase bags. After contacting Bass Mafia Outdoors customer service, they replaced every single bag that had a defective zipper. I highly recommend their products!

From: Matt: Greenwood, Indiana 7/22/19

Comments: Junk! I purchased a dozen of these about a year ago. The zipper on each bag has broken, rendering the bags completely useless. I have contacted BassMafia regarding the issue and have not received any response whatsoever.

From: Matt: Greenwood, IN 6/28/19

Comments: Sub standard quality (piece of junk) for the price, Bass mafia needs to go back to the drawing board on zipper design.

From: Unknown 5/24/19

Comments: These things are complete garbage. I purchased one about 6 months ago to keep my smaller swim baits in and the zipper has already came apart. I maybe had 10 packs of 3.8 inch swim baits in it so it was defiantly not overloaded.

From: Chris: Alabama 1/29/19
