HELP IS HERE!

SENIOR TRANSITIONING MADE POSSIBLE.

Transitions can be overwhelming. They can also be a step into a new life of experience, learning, and preparation.

Senior transitions are especially complex. Human beings who have a long experience of life, raising families, building careers, contributing to communities may suddenly find themselves unable to continue on as they have for decades and face immediate dilemmas about how to manage growing challenges. At this stage most of us are largely unaware of what we are about to experience.

All of these emotions can be quite overwhelming. And everyone's situation is different. The good news is there's help with all of this. Silver Bridge has the resources and connections to assist you and guide you through the maze that is the new chapter of your or your loved one's life.

SOME CONCERNS YOU MIGHT BE HAVING RIGHT NOW...

- ► What will I do if I am unable to get around like I used to?
- ► I can't clean and maintain my home by myself any more. Who is there to help?
- ► How do I protect my ability to choose my care options and my estate. What are they?
- My home hasn't been updated or even got a coat of fresh paint in a long time.
- I could really use help with the stairs or something to grab onto in the shower.
- Should I improve my home or consider moving to a place where I can get some help?
- ► What do I/we do with the house? What is it worth?
- What are we going to do with all of the "stuff"?
- ► What if we need money to clean up the real estate and get it ready for sale? Where will we get that?
- Who will do all the work? How much will it cost?

Take time to write down additional notes or concerns that you can share with Silver Bridge Transitional Services when you have your meeting.
