Sigma Ultralign X

The Ultralign X provides a full workstation to modernize your practice, including:

- A computerized Sigma adjusting instrument that resets skeletal joints and nerves with scientific measurement and precision.
- Sigma's specialized software that controls treatment and provides real-time feedback during the treatment phase.
- A deluxe C-posture treatment chair is expertly engineered to include an adjustable face cradle, chest pad, seat and an advanced foam system for the ultimate in comfort.

ITEM#: SA201

Description: Ultralign X Adjusting Instrument Package Included: Ultralign Adjusting Instrument, Adjusting-head tip set, Analysis and adjusting software, Patient education software, One-year renewal warranty