PETITION TO MAKE SPECIAL

The applicant submits herewith a petition to make special. It is accompanied by:

- (1) the fee required by 37 C.F.R. §2.6;
- (2) an explanation of why special action is requested; and
- (3) a statement of facts that shows that special action is justified. The statement of facts should be supported by an affidavit or declaration under 37 C.F.R. §2.20.

Explanation of why special action is requested

The applicant describes the special circumstances that exist, specifically a need for a registration as a basis for securing a foreign registration, as described by the following statement of facts, which is supported by an affidavit or declaration under 37 C.F.R. §2.20.

Statement of facts that shows that special action is justified, such statement supported by an affidavit or declaration under 37 C.F.R. §2.20

1. I am the attorney of record for the subject application no.: 88783752.
2. TMEP 1710.01 lists one of “[t]he most common reasons for granting petitions to make ‘special’” as being “the need for a registration as a basis for securing a foreign registration.”
