Noun

(plural joeys)

1. The immature young of a marsupial, notably a junior kangaroo, but also a young wallaby, koala, etc.
2. The shorter word whose letters can be found within a kangaroo word.

Origin

Unknown.

Older and more general sources state that joey comes from an Australian aboriginal language, but newer sources which focus on Australian English and aboriginal languages say the origin is unknown. The Australian National Dictionary includes a sense of "young possum" with citations predating the earliest "young kangaroo" citations.

Proper noun

- A diminutive of the male given name Joe or Joseph.
