Antonio Pappano

October 9 at 12:33 PM

Catch Sir Antonio Pappano live on BBC World Service this Saturday evening, 12th October at 8pm BST. In this special edition of The Arts Hour, he talks about his life and career and how he especially wants to make classical music accessible for the younger generation. He'll be joined by members of the National Youth Orchestra of the USA / NYO2 to discuss how classical music can speak to a young global audience today. #TheArtsHour Carnegie Hall Dog & Trumpet Royal Opera House Accademia Nazionale di Santa Cecilia BBC IMG Artists Warner Classics & Erato

2019 music alum Karalyn Harper playing at Carnegie Hall. She joins a long line of ASFA students and alums who've played on Carnegie Hall's stage. ASFA junior Kah'in Jordan also played there this summer and recent grads Jeremy Duke and K'mya Burrell were there in 2018. Wishing good luck to our current music students who are applying this year for the National Youth Orchestra of the USA / NYO2 program!
