ABOUT

Description

Each summer, Carnegie Hall's Weill Music Institute brings together the brightest young players from across the country to form the National Youth Orchestra of the United States of America (NYO-USA). Following a comprehensive audition process and a two-week training residency with leading professional orchestra musicians, these remarkable teenagers embark on a tour to some of the great music capitals of the world and serve as dynamic musical ambassadors.

In the summer of 2016, Carnegie Hall's Weill Music Institute will launch NYO2, a two-week, intensive summer training program for outstanding young American instrumentalists ages 14–17. NYO2 will have a particular focus on attracting talented students from groups underserved by and underrepresented in the classical orchestral field.

Carnegie Hall's National Youth Ensembles Summer 2018

4,376 views • 1 year ago

This summer, Carnegie Hall brought together more than 200 of the finest teen musicians from across the country for the National Youth Orchestra of the United States of America (NYO-USA), NYO2, and NYO Jazz, a new group that made its debut this summer, celebrating this uniquely American art form. All three ensembles took part in an intensive training residency at Purchase College before performing at Carnegie Hall and READ MORE
