National Youth Orchestra of the United States of America

Valery Gergiev

In the summer of 2013, Carnegie Hall's Weill Music Institute brings together the brightest young players (ages 16–19) from across the country to form the National Youth Orchestra of the United States of America. Following a comprehensive audition process and a two-week training residency with leading professional orchestra musicians, these remarkable teenagers embark on an international tour to some of the great music capitals of the world, led by a different conductor each year.

For NYO-USA's inaugural season, famed maestro Valery Gergiev leads the orchestra to Washington, DC, Moscow, St. Petersburg, and London.

Registration deadline: September 7, 2012
